

Rev Paul Williams is to join Christ Church Fulwood as Vicar in January 2006

Paul is currently Senior Associate Minister (Evangelism) at All Souls Langham Place where he has served since 1999. His first curacy was at Christ Church Ware, followed by a second at St Peter's, Harold Wood.

In addition to his ministry at All Souls, Paul finds himself preaching and leading missions at churches around the country.

Paul is married to Caroline. They have twin daughters, Susannah and Bethan born in July 2000 and a son, Joshua, born in April 2003. Paul plays tennis at a local club and enjoys "watching any sport, especially Leeds United Football Club."

He was born and educated in Hertfordshire. After seven years working in the Newspaper industry, Paul left his job as Newspaper sales and Promotions Manager to spend three years training for the ordained ministry at Oak Hill Theological College.

